• READING COMPREHENSION:

CHARLOTTE BRONTE

Charlotte Bronte is one of England's most famous writers. She was born on 21st of April in 1816 in the north of England and spent most of her life there in the village of Haworth.

One day in 1826, Charlotte's father gave some wooden soldiers to Charlotte, her brother and her sisters.

This was when the children started to write. Their first stories were about these toys.

Charlotte left Haworth to work as a teacher. When she returned she found that her father was ill and she decided to stay at home to look after him.

Soon Charlotte and her sisters began writing again. They first wrote some poems and then each of them wrote a novel. They sent the novels to a book publisher in London. He thought all the novels were very good, except Charlotte's. However, it was not long before Charlotte wrote a second novel, a story about a young woman called Jane Eyre. The publisher liked this novel very much and soon it was in every bookshop. Charlotte wrote two more novels before she died in 1855 at the age of 39.
