• READING COMPREHENSION:

A Fairy-Tale Princess

It was like a fairy tale when the beautiful young girl married the Prince and became the Princess of Wales. Unlike a fairy tale, the happiness soon ended, but Diana was still The People's Princess.

Diana Frances Spencer was born on 1st July, 1961, in Norfolk, England. Her father was Earl Spencer. She had two older sisters and a younger brother. Her parents divorced when she was a young girl. As a child, Diana studied at a boarding school in Kent. She completed her education in Switzerland. When she returned to England, she worked as a nanny in London.

Diana married Prince Charles in July, 1981, at St. Paul's Cathedral in London. People all around the world watched her wedding on television. Charles and Diana had two sons, William and Harry.

Diana was very popular. The British loved her for her kindness and beauty. They called her The People's Princess because she cared so much about sick and poor people all over the world. She once said,

"I see myself as a princess for the world, not the Princess of Wales" Reporters were always around her. She was their favourite person.

But Diana's life wasn't as happy as it appeared. She and Charles had problems with their marriage. They finally divorced in August, 1996.

Diana continued to travel round the world and help those in need. But her life was short – she died in a car accident on 31st August, 1997, in Paris. She was only 36 years old.
